NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: July 2, 2020

Released: July 2, 2020

By the Chief, Enforcement Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. Noncommercial educational (NCE) stations, which include all low power FM (LPFM) stations, provide a unique service to the public. LPFM stations in particular allow the public to enjoy a radio service that is both commercial free and distinctly oriented to the local communities of the stations' listeners. Because of their unique and non-profit nature, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has given special regulatory consideration to NCE and LPFM stations, reserving spectrum for NCE stations, imposing fewer regulatory requirements, and exempting them from annual regulatory fees.

2. Accordingly, the Communications Act and FCC rules have long prohibited NCE stations from airing commercial advertisements. Although such stations can identify contributors who provide financial support, they cannot go further and promote a contributor's products, services, or businesses. Strong enforcement of these restrictions preserves the unique nature of low power FM stations by keeping them commercial-free. It also provides a level playing field for noncommercial broadcasters who obey the rules, and for commercial broadcasters that assume higher levels of regulatory and financial burdens in exchange for being permitted to sell commercial advertising on their stations.

3. In this case, Plymouth Gathering, Inc. (Plymouth or Licensee),¹ licensee of LPFM station KELS-LP (Station or KELS-LP), Greeley, Colorado, apparently violated the Commission's rules for NCE stations on multiple occasions. Specifically, over a three-month period in 2018, Plymouth apparently aired over 1,600 advertisements on KELS-LP promoting the products, services or businesses of at least 14 financial contributors. Therefore, we propose a penalty of $15,000 against Plymouth for its apparent violation of statutory provisions and the Commission's rules prohibiting commercial advertisements on NCE stations.

¹ Any entity that is a "Small Business Concern" as defined in the Small Business Act (Pub. L. 85-536, as amended) may avail itself of rights set forth in that Act, including rights set forth in 15 U.S.C. § 657, "Oversight of Regulatory Enforcement," in addition to other rights set forth herein.

II. BACKGROUND

4. Legal Background. Section 399B of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Act),² and section 73.503(d) of the Commission's rules³ (collectively, Underwriting Laws) define an advertisement as programming material broadcast "in exchange for any remuneration" and intended to "promote any service, facility, or product" of for-profit entities.⁴ Section 399B(b)(2) of the Act specifically provides that NCE stations may not broadcast advertisements.⁵ In the Report and Order establishing the LPFM service, the Commission identified LPFM stations as noncommercial entities.⁶ Although contributors of funds to such stations may receive on-air acknowledgements of their support, the Commission has held that such acknowledgements are for identification purposes only and must not promote the contributors' products, services, or businesses.⁷ In addition, such announcements may not contain comparative or qualitative descriptions; price information (sales or discounts); calls to action; inducements to buy, sell, rent, or lease; and excessively detailed "menu listings" of services offered by the entity.⁸

5. The Commission has found that the longer the announcement, the more likely it is to contain material that is inconsistent with its "identification only" purpose.⁹ The Commission expects that licensees exercise reasonable "good faith" judgment in this area and affords some latitude to the judgments of licensees who do so.¹⁰

6. Factual Background. Plymouth Gathering, Inc. is a Colorado nonprofit corporation and is the licensee of LPFM station KELS-LP. The Station is licensed to, and serves, the community of Greeley, Colorado. The Commission has received multiple complaints since 2015 alleging that the Licensee is airing advertisements on the Station, essentially operating the noncommercial Station as a commercial station.¹¹ Following a review of the complaints, Commission staff, including the Bureau's

Colorado Field Office (CO Field Office), investigated and monitored the Station.¹² On September 5, 2018, the CO Field Office conducted an additional inspection of the Station and recorded a segment of Station programming that appeared to include commercial announcements for 14 underwriters, which are excerpted in Exhibit 1. The Bureau inquired about these matters on December 12, 2018,¹³ to which the Licensee responded on February 8, 2019.¹⁴

7. Licensee acknowledges in its LOI Response that it broadcast 13 different announcements more than 1,600 times over a three-month period in late 2018, but asserts that it does not maintain records concerning the broadcast dates, times or text of the announcements.¹⁵ The Licensee also acknowledges that it executed contracts with the following 13 for-profit entities to air announcements for monetary remuneration:¹⁶ Cattleman's Steakhouse, Scott's Imports, Gourmet Grub, Realty One Group, Weld County Garage, Not Your Average Nerds, Christian Brothers Automotive, Grizzly Garage Door, Roma Restaurant, Western Computer Support Services, Florio's Shoes, True Abundance Property Management, and Weiss Jewelers. The Licensee does not dispute the accuracy of the Bureau's transcripts of these announcements.¹⁷ Further review of the CO Field Office recordings reveals a 14th apparent commercial announcement for The Dog Pawlour, also broadcast by the Station.

III. DISCUSSION

8. There are numerous ways in which underwriting announcements can violate section 399B of the Act and section 503(d) of the Commission's rules.¹⁸ In this case, the announcements at issue are replete with prohibited promotional references that violate Underwriting Laws. We find that the 14 announcements set forth in the attached Exhibit 1 and made on behalf of 14 for-profit entities apparently exceed the bounds of what the Underwriting Laws permit, notwithstanding the "good faith" discretion afforded the Licensee under Xavier.¹⁹

- Eleven announcements make prohibited promotional references by employing comparative and/or qualitative language to describe products or services: Scott's Imports Announcement, Realty One Group Fourpoints Announcement, Weld County Garage Announcement, Not Your Average Nerds Announcement, Christian Brothers Automotive Announcement, Grizzly Garage Door Services Announcement, The Dog Pawlor Announcement, Roma Restaurant Announcement, Florio's Shoes Announcement, True Abundance Property Management Announcement, and Weiss Jewelers Announcement.²⁰
- Nine announcements make prohibited promotional references by using pricing language and/or offering inducements to do business: Scott's Imports Announcement, Realty One Group Fourpoints Announcement, Weld County Garage Announcement, Not Your Average Nerds Announcement, Christian Brothers Automotive Announcement, Roma Restaurant Announcement, Florio's Shoes Announcement, True Abundance Property Management Announcement, and Weiss Jewelers Announcement.²¹
- Six announcements make prohibited promotional references by employing "menu listings" (e.g., excessive arrayal) of products or services: Cattlemen's Steak House & Saloon Announcement, Gourmet Grub Announcement, The Dog Pawlour Announcement, Western Computer and Support Services Announcement, True Abundance Property Management Announcement, and Roma Restaurant.²²
- At least six announcements are greater than 30 seconds in length; some are close to or exceeding 60 seconds in length: Realty One Group Fourpoints Announcement, Christian Brothers Automotive Announcement, Roma Restaurant Announcement, Western Computer and Support Services, Florio's Shoes Announcement, and True Abundance Property Management Announcement.²³

¹⁸ See Enhanced Underwriting Policy, 7 FCC Rcd 827, 828 (providing examples of violative announcements); cf. 1982 Policy Statement, 90 FCC 2d at 900 n.16 (noting that underwriters which qualify under IRS guidelines as not-for-profit organizations are not subject to the prohibition).

9. None of the foregoing announcements are permissible under Xavier because each in the context presented is “clearly promotional.”²⁴ Each announcement refers either to specific qualities or attributes of the respective underwriters and their products, and seeks to distinguish them from competitors or contains language of inducement. Although the Licensee contends that it cannot confirm the specific text of the announcements, it does not dispute the accuracy of the transcripts of the announcements included in Exhibit 1.²⁵ The Commission may rely on such un rebutted evidence in spite of the Licensee’s demurrers.²⁶

IV. PROPOSED FORFEITURE

10. Section 503(b) of the Act authorizes the Commission to impose a forfeiture against any entity that “willfully or repeatedly fail[s] to comply with any of the provisions of [the Act] or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission.”²⁷ Section 503(b)(2)(A) of the Act authorizes the Commission to assess a forfeiture against the Licensee of up to $51,222 per violation or for each day of a continuing violation, up to a statutory maximum of $512,228 for a single act or failure to act.²⁸ In exercising our forfeiture authority, we consider the “nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.”²⁹ In addition, the Commission has established forfeiture guidelines; they establish base penalties for certain violations and identify criteria that we consider when determining the appropriate penalty in any given case.³⁰ Under these guidelines, we may adjust a forfeiture upward for violations that are egregious, intentional, or repeated, or that cause substantial harm or generate substantial economic gain for the violator.³¹

²⁷ 47 U.S.C. § 503(b).

²⁸ 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(2)(A); 47 CFR § 1.80(b)(1). These amounts reflect inflation adjustments of the forfeitures specified in section 503(b)(2)(A). The Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act Improvements Act of 2015, Pub. L. No 114-74, § 701, 129 Stat. 584, 599 (2015 Inflation Adjustment Act) requires agencies, starting in 2017, to adjust annually the civil monetary penalties covered thereunder, and to publish each such annual adjustment by January 15. The 2015 Inflation Adjustment Act amended the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act of 1990, which is codified, as amended, at 28 U.S.C. § 2461 note (Inflation Adjustment Act). The Bureau released the order making the 2020 annual adjustment on December 27, 2019. See Amendment of Section 1.80(b) of the Commission’s Rules, Adjustment of Civil Monetary Penalties to Reflect Inflation, Order, DA 19-1325 (EB Dec. 27, 2019), 2019 WL 7370226. See also Annual Adjustment of Civil Monetary Penalties to Reflect Inflation, 85 Fed. Reg. 2318 (Jan. 15, 2020) (setting January 15, 2020, as the effective date for the increases). The 2015 Inflation Adjustment Act provides that the new penalty levels shall apply to penalties assessed after the effective date of the increase, “including [penalties] whose associated violation predated such increase.” See 28 U.S.C. § 2461 note, citing Inflation Adjustment Act, as amended, § 6.

³⁰ 47 CFR § 1.80(b)(8), note to paragraph (b)(8).

³¹ Id.

11. Section 1.80 of the Commission's rules sets a base forfeiture of $2,000 for violations of the enhanced underwriting requirements.³² We have discretion, however, to depart from these guidelines, taking into account the particular facts of each individual case.³³ In this case, it appears that, over a three-month period in late 2018,³⁴ the Licensee willfully and repeatedly broadcast 14 separate advertisements more than 1,600 times in total, in violation of section 399B of the Act and section 73.503(d) of the Commission's rules. We have considered the protracted period of time over which the prohibited announcements were aired and the number of announcements at issue, as well as the forfeiture actions in other underwriting cases to determine the forfeiture appropriate for this matter. Applying the 1997 Forfeiture Policy Statement statutory factors to this case,³⁵ we conclude that the Licensee is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $15,000 for willfully and repeatedly violating the Underwriting Laws.

V. CONCLUSION

12. We have determined that Plymouth apparently willfully and repeatedly violated section 399B of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the Act),³⁶ and section 73.503(d) of the Commission's rules.³⁷ As such, Plymouth is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $15,000.

VI. ORDERING CLAUSES

13. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and sections 0.111, 0.311 and 1.80 of the Commission's rules, Plymouth Gathering Inc., licensee of noncommercial LPFM Station KELS-LP, Greeley, Colorado, is hereby NOTIFIED of its APPARENT LIABILITY FOR A FORFEITURE in the amount of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for willfully and repeatedly broadcasting advertisements in violation of section 399B of the Act,³⁸ section 73.801, and section 73.503(d) of the Commission's rules.³⁹
